Public Offer License Agreement

1. Subject of the Agreement

1.1. This Agreement is a public offer agreement of the journal "Russian Journal of Geriatric Medicine" with ISSN 2686-8636 (Print) and ISSN 2686-8709 (Online) (hereinafter referred to as the Journal). If the Author(s) (hereinafter referred to as the Licensor) provides the editorial board of the Journal (hereinafter referred to as the Licensee) with their manuscript for publication after the necessary review, editing and proofreading (hereinafter referred to as the Work) in any possible way, i.e. in a handwritten/printed/electronic version, the Licensor automatically accepts the terms of this agreement.

1.2. This agreement is irrevocable (notmay be terminated unilaterally without a court decision).

1.3. Under this agreement, the Licensor grants the Licensee non-exclusive rights to use its Work within the limits stipulated by the agreement for an unlimited period.

1.4. The transfer of rights to use materials from the licensor to the licensee complies with the international license standard CC BY-NC-SA 4.0, which allows third parties to distribute and adapt this work, without the possibility of commercial use, with the obligatory preservation of links to the authors of the original work and the original publication in this Journal.

2. Rights and obligations of the parties

2.1. The licensor of the manuscript guarantees the following:

2.1.1. Compliance of the manuscript with the subject matter and editorial policy of the Journal, as well as its rules for authors (including the provision of the required package of documents).

2.1.2. In case of multiple authors, approval of authorship and delegation of all rights to the corresponding author for sole communication with the Licensee and subsequently with the readership of the Journal.

2.1.3. Compliance with the Journal's regulations and personal responsibility of each author for any aspect of the Work before and after publication.

2.1.4. Bearing responsibility for originality, scientific content and compliance with ethical principles.

2.1.5. The manuscript does not violate anyone's copyright, contains all references to cited authors and publications provided for by the current copyright legislation, as well as images, results and facts obtained by other authors or organizations used in the article.

2.1.6. The manuscript does not include materials that are not subject to publication in the open press, in accordance with current regulations.

2.1.7. The manuscript has not been published anywhere before, has not been sent and will not be sent for publication to other scientific publications without the consent of the Licensor.

2.1.8. When using artificial intelligence tools, the Licensor followed the current policies of the Journal, the user agreement of these tools, and also checked the accuracy, relevance and originality of the generated content.

2.2. The Licensor gives the Licensee its consent to the following:

2.2.1. Providing the use of the Work throughout the world, in accordance with paragraph 1.4, in particular, to use the Work by posting it in whole or in part, including by means of the Journal's website, in various databases and information systems.

2.2.2. The Licensee's revision of the manuscript illustrations, editing the text and translating it into foreign languages.

2.2.3. The Licensee's right to refuse publication, retract or withdraw the published Work, as well as to post corrections or other notices regarding the Work.

2.2.4. Processing in accordance with Art. 6 of the Federal Law "On Personal Data" dated 27.07.2006 No. 152-FZ of their personal data (last name, first name, patronymic, academic degree, academic title, position, place(s) of work and/or study, contact information at the place of work and/or study) for the purpose of publishing the submitted Work in the Journal.

2.3. According to paragraph 1 of this Agreement, the Licensor reserves the following rights:

2.3.1. All patent rights to any process, procedure or product described in the Work.

2.3.2. The ability to publish the manuscript in preprint databases, as well as the original research data in the relevant repositories (for example, Mendeley Data), provided that the Licensor updates the metadata of these databases and repositories after the publication of the Work, where, in particular, it will enter the details of the published Work.

2.3.3. Possibility of posting the final version of the Work in institutional and public repositories (for example, ResearchGate)

3. Liability of the Parties

3.1. The Licensor and the Licensee bear property and other legal liability in accordance with the current legislation of the Russian Federation for failure to fulfill or improper fulfillment of their obligations under this agreement.

4. Final Provisions

4.1. All disputes and disagreements between the parties arising from the terms of this agreement shall be settled by negotiations, and if they are unsuccessful, such disputes shall be resolved in court in accordance with the current legislation of the Russian Federation.

4.2. In all matters not provided for in this agreement, the parties shall be guided by the norms of the current legislation of the Russian Federation.
